Words from the President

Thanksgiving is over and we are still STUFFED by all the food consumed from our family gathering (61 in attendance), from football, card games and we still have so much to be "THANKFUL" for in spite of our over indulgence.

Attended the Virginia Pin Swap last month (197 registrations) and what another great performance by the Virginia Lions.

Looking forward to Nashville in February, Pennsylvania in March, North Carolina and Our own MIDWEST Swap in April (Nebraska is the host) and then on to Seattle in July. It just does not get any better than this for the fun, fellowship and some pin trading.

Dianna goes along most of the time (shopping malls are always near by) and she too has developed great friendships with the wives of other Lions, so fun and fellowship is for "ALL".

Please consider sponsoring a fellow Lion into both the Ohio Pin Traders and the LITPC and these "NEW" Lions will receive pins, newsletters and much fun and fellowship.

Must close for now as I have much Christmas shopping to get done. My wish for you is a most "BLESSED" Christmas and "HAPPY" and "HEALTHY" New Year, and may you find that special pin in your stocking.

Yours in Lionism

Merle Dutt

NOTES FROM YOUR EDITOR

If you have not looked at the website lately, please do so. Lion Bill Keller has done a great job in finishing up on getting all the Ohio pins listed. He is presently working on a project that documents all the new member sponsorship pins. Check it out on our website.

The third pin in the carnation series will be handed out at the Winter retreat to the first 200 who present their special coupon.

Please check your address label to make sure your dues are paid up to date. The club presently has 98 members.

Limited Number of First Ladies Pins Still Available

We have a limited number of first ladies pin left numbers 3 through 8. Unfortunately we are completely sold out of pins number 1 and 2.

That means there are a number of traders who bought the first two pins but have not completed their set.

Please get your order in early so that you know you will have a complete set.
